Today's Market Reports

TODAY'S STOCK MARKET REMAINS UNINTERESTING

[By Licensed Wire to Evening Herald.]

New York, March 24.—The vigorous buying of the preceding session was lacking today and the market was susceptible to pressure. Stocks which recently have been vulnerable, such as Lehigh, New Haven and Steel, again reflected professional selling, the effect of which was increased by realizing sales. Rumors common at 9 and preferred at 10-14 made new low records. Central Leather lost part of its recent gain. Prices in general moved narrowly and there were indications of underlying strength despite the earlier tone. Bonds were irregular.

The market closed easy. Active liquidation of Corn Products followed publication of President Bedford's pessimistic remarks as to the value of the stock in the event of a decision against the company in the government's dissolution suit. The common stock fell 2 1/2 and the preferred 1-3/4. Harvester rose 2 points, but there prices shaded.

Prices on the more important stocks were: Amalgamated, 75 1/2; Sugar, 101 bid; Atchafalpa, 93 1/2; Reading, 166 1/2; Southern Pacific, 95 1/2; Union Pacific, 109 1/2; Steel, 64 1/2; Steel preferred, 110 1/2.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISION MARKET

Chicago, March 24.—Surprising demand for feed northwest and west in the face of a sharp advance carried the corn market upward again. Opening prices, which varied from a shade off to 1-3/4 to 1-1/2 gain, were followed by a gradual rise all around.

Wheat hardened with corn and because of reports of high winds in Kansas. Prices started unchanged to 1-3/4 higher and slowly continued to mount.

The close was easy at the same as last night to 1/4 to 1/2 lower. Trading in oats was mostly between pit speculators. Prices followed the lead of corn.

The close was nervous at last night's level to 1/4 down.

The provision market held steady within narrow limits.

Closing prices: Wheat—May, 93 1/2; July, 89c. Corn—May, 62 1/2; July, 63 1/2. Oats—May, 40c; July, 40 1/2. Pork—May, 21.50; July, 21.57. Lard—May, 19.77; July, 19.97. Hubs—May, 11.45; July, 11.52.

Before Judge Reynolds and a jury the damage suit of Senator Isaac Barth against the A. T. & S. F. railway, growing out of a shipment of sheep belonging to the senator in 1909, was on trial this afternoon. The plaintiff asks for a judgment of $1,200. The railway company has filed a claim in offset for freight amounting to be due, amounting to $587.

ALBRIGHT ORDERED TO FILE INVENTORY TOMORROW

Following the filing of objections to his report as administrator of the estate of his wife, the late Mrs. Frank Albright, Col. J. G. Albright, in the probate court today, was given until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to file an inventory and amended report. Miss Albright is seeking an accounting of her mother's estate in the probate court in conjunction with a suit for partition instituted in the district court.

The objections, filed by Warren &

Wood and Thomas N. Wilkerson, Miss Albright's lawyers are that the report is not verified as required by law; that no appraisal of the property appears to be on the records of the court; that it appears from the report that the administrator applied rents from the real estate to the payment of taxes and debts of the deceased without an order from the court, and further, when it appears that there is personal estate sufficient to pay said debts. The court was asked to strike the report from the record. John C. Lewis appeared for Colonel Albright.

Candelaria G. de Moreno, guardian of Sofia Montoya et als, filed a new bond of $1,500, which was approved.

D. S. Dickinson was appointed guardian of James, William, Walter, Ralph and Robert Dickinson, under $200 bond.

Hearing on the final report of Joseph W. Weir, administrator of the estate of Martha F. Weir, was set for May 4.

Henry Mann was appointed guardian of the person and estate of Howard Mann and bond was fixed at $1,500.

Judge Burg adjourned court until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.
